FORWARD

This work which started out to be a record of the Hagerty families, and which was begun by Alice Hagerty Schweitzer in the early years of her marriage, has far outgrown that designation. The Hagerty families of James Hagerty and his wife, Elinor Crawford Hagerty, has reached out to encompass many families, and has then gone backward into time to a realm of Historical significance, and a country so new it was almost the first birth pangs of a nation....It has gathered together the scattered threads of the Wiggins, the Prebles, the Hustons, and all the inter-relations and kinships. It has progressed from the far eastern reaches of the New England States when they were but colonies, and tells the story of this family from Atlantic to Pacific. From the Revolution through Viet Nam, and from meager schools, to fine Universities. Always there is the allotted part of the endeavor to an honoring, worship and acknowledgment of our God, and our Father. It is truly a story of the American way of life, lived and given as a heritage which this work will seek to preserve. It is not finished, for that is not given to any person, or persons.

Many have added of a knowledge, of a fact revealed, of places, names, dates and hopes fulfilled. We can never say thank you to all the kindly sharing persons who have helped us. Only God knows the scope of this sharing, and through Him will come our grateful thanks.

HISTORICAL SOURCES AND INTRODUCTIONS

From Mrs. Robert J. Buxton, 9525 Morrow Road, N.E., Albuquerque, N. Mexico, 87112 zip on December 2, 1971; and from Mrs. A.W. Easter, 2626 South Evanston, Tulsa, Oklahoma, 74114 - a joint sharing of Preble fact:
"Charity Preble died in 1832 and both she and Edward Wiggins are buried in cemetery near Homestead at Cross Creek District, of West Virginia. This homestead consisted of 400 acres "deed signed by Governor John Randolph of Virginia on a sheepskin Grant." The will written 9-25-1828 probated on July 30, 1832 in "Ohio Valley Genealogier" page 25 reads: "Edward Crawford born in Virginia 1760 died in Archer Township, Harrison County, Ohio in 1831. Married Mary Wiggins born 1770 died 1864, the daughter of Edward and Charity Preble Wiggins of Brooke Co., Virginia. Elinor Crawford born November 30, 1794.
Source of Edward Crawford, etc. is "Ohio Valley Genealogies, page 25.
The people spelled it Pribble until about 1840, then made various changes.
They are first in Maryland records from 1680 rent rolls, Baltimore County as Thomas Pribble. and wife, Mary. He died in 1704. His inventory at Hall of Records, Annapolis, shows him to be a planter of Tobacco.
Mary is a later tax list with Theo. Bucknell, probably her father, as he lived nearby, and had a daughter Mary in his will. She married after Thomas Pribble's death with Archibold Buchanan. All the Baptisms of their children are in the records of St. Johns and St. Georges Parish, Hall of Records, Annapolis, Harford Co., (1773 from Baltimore County. Page 2 of her letter: "Of their children John Married Ann (Nancy) Gallion. This was tradition in several branches of the family, and proved at last by her father's will - Father was John Gallion, 1733, Hall of Records, Annapolis. The above couples children are in same parish records. Among them were:

John Jr., (also Stephen)	James	Thomas
born 1736 b.1736	b. 1735	b. 1724

Deeds called him John Jr., but he is Stephen Bps. (Baptismal?)
There are four generations called "John Stephen" Pribble and just so many vacancies so he must have dual name of above.
After 1767 The Pribbles vanish from Maryland records. We find the same 3 names: ie., Stephen, James and Thomas in Washington County, Pa. Thomas there in 1768 deed with son-in-law George Teagarden.
Note that Harry Ulyats' notes spell this Teagarten comment is "German".

The Pribbles' lived in Cumberland Twp., in Washington Co., Penn. which became a part of Green County in 1796.
Most of the Pribbles have fallen into little units. We think Reuben Pribble was a son of Thomas b. 1724 as he appears on tax lists of Washington Co., Pa., with Thomas and Thomas Jr., - We know that Reuben Pribble belonged to the Kentucky militia as a Virginia Soldier. (The southwest corner of Pa., was claimed by Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania, at the time of Settlement.) Collins history of Kentucky mentions Reuben Pribble. We believe this Reuben Pribble lived in Monroe Co., Ohio very early and had a few sons, one of which was a Reuben who lived in 1830 in Vermillion Co., Indiana. Monroe County, Ohio is across the Ohio River from Below Brooke County, W. Virginia. Reuben's line, I believe Salem Twp. figures some in, as Salem Twp., was once a part of Belmont and now is in Monroe. Belmont Co., Ohio is nearer Brooke Co., - there are two early Pribble Marriages in Salem Twp., John Preble and Susannah Preble, one married a Citts (Kitts) and another a YOKO (not certain) - page 3 her letter--- The tax lists in Washington Co., Pa. list Stephan, James, Thomas, Thomas Jr., Reuben and Job. John Stephen born 1736 was father of James born 1762 Baltimore Co., Md., who served in Revolutionary War, Washington Co., Pennsylvania. and married there in 1787 to Miss Margaret Pribble, surely Job. Pribble. Job applied for pension was rejected for same. He died in Union County, Indiana. James died in Pendleton County, Ky., 1850; and had a daughter named Charity. Thomas born 1724 is supposed to have married Mary Teagarden. Have never gotten the proof. Teagardens were Germany - Maryland - Washington County, Pa. They had a daughter Rachel born 1763 who married George Teagarden. His son Thomas Jr., born 176- was in Revolutionary War, but was rejected when he applied for pension. His wife was Hannah, daughter of Lt. Col. Henry Enoch, Land Commissioner who gave them a large grant of Wood County, West Virginia, where Thomas died in_____born 176-??

It seems to me that Thomas, born 1724 could surely be the father of Charity. Since all the others would have been just a little young to have had issue in 1745. James, Job and Thomas, Jr., all thought of themselves as "Indian Spies" in applications Revolutionary War. They were on Ten Mile Creek, Washington County, Pa., during war. They must have been experts at survival.

Around 1787 Old Thomas born 1724 bought a grant in Washington County, Pa., - before that the only records showing them are the tax lists. I also searched the Compilations of the three states claiming the disputed area. On tax lists in Pa., they are "Tribble". James Pribble's Rev. was appointment describes the area exactly where the Tribbles are in Washington Co., Pa --so we know they are the same. We do not have any proof of Charity, but circumstances lead me to believe she belongs to Maryland Pribbles.

P.S. My line is from an uncle of Commodore Preble of the Descendants of Abraham Preble, (Pribble) of York, Maine, 1640. There were so many Prebles we could not place, so I got interested in the others and found them much more thrilling than the York line. ALL EARLY PREBBLE RECORDS ARE IN KENT, ENGLAND - 1300's to 1600's. YOU DON'T FIND THEM IN ANY OTHER COUNTRY. PRIBBLE PREBLE PREBBLE PRYBBLE. signed - Margaret Buxton, dated Nov. 26, 1971.

Notes from Marie's letter: I am unmarried, as I spent my time caring for parents in their aging years. Dad was 94 when he passed away and I was with him 12 years after Mother passed on. We have lost track of my father's half brother's family. They lived in Ohio and he came out to see his father (my grandfather who made his home with us in his last years). The John and Harvey Wiffings and Samuel Wiggins, my grandfather's nephews have visited us. John and Harvey came to Kansas in early day and homesteaded land near Lyons, Kansas. There is a John and Edward in every generation.

Extract from Dr. E. MacLysaght's

IRISH FAMILIES, THEIR NAMES, ARMS AND ORIGINS

O'HEGARTY

Hegarty, sometimes O'Hegarty but seldom Haggerty in Ireland (a form of the name found among Irish-Americans) is in Irish O'HEIGCEARTAIGH (eigceartach means unjust). Though now associated principally with County Cork, the Hegarty's of Munster are in fact a branch of the main O'Hegarty sept of the Cinel Eoghain which was located on the borders of the present counties of Donegal and Derry. In the fourteenth century the barony of Loughinsholin (Co. Derry) was their principal habitat; in the seventeenth they were more numerous in Tirkeeran (County Derry) and Inishowen (Co. Donegal) in the north, and in the baronies of Barrymore and Carbery West in County Cork.

As is usually the case the present representatives of the sept are to be found in their traditional homeland and are today most numerous in Counties Cork, Donegal, and Derry. The Ulster sept were subfeudatory to O'Neill: Maolmuire O'Hegarty fell in Kinsale in O'Neill's army.

The 1691 attainders of O'Hegartys related to those of Ulster. The records of persecuted priests in the seventeenth century also indicate the Ulster character of the sept up till modern times. The name appears very frequently in the annals of the Irish Brigades and amont those who distinguished themselves particularly in this field of action was Lt. Col. Hegarty of Lally's Regiment, who for his services was rewarded in 1747 by Louis VI of France, while Peter O'Hegarty was made Governor of the Isle of Bourbon. Another Irish Hegarty of eighteenth century France, Daniel O'Hegarty, shipbuilder of Dunkirk, a Catholic, strange as this seems to us now, founded the first Freemason lodge in that country in 1721. According to Dr. Richard Hayes the main object of these lodges, which were largely composed of Jacobite exiles, was the restoration of the house of Stuart.

In recent times the name was less distinguished, though several Hegartys were prominant in the struggle for Irish Independence 1916-1921; of these P.S. O'Hegarty (1897-1955) who was an author of repute, is the best known. The place-name Hegarty's Rock at Killeygarvan near Lough Swilly commemorates the barbarous and treacherous murder of Father James Hegerty there in 1715.

JAMES HAGERTY was born August 6, 1793 and for long years tradition said he was born in Ireland. But the 1880 census of Franklin township, DeKalb County, Indiana says that Nathan Hagerty lists his father's birthplace in Pennsylvania.

ELINOR CRAWFORD born November 30, 1794 the daughter of Edward Crawford and Mary Wiggins was born in Brooke County, West Virginia, and the couple were married on January 9, 1817. Most of their married life was in Carroll County, Ohio just a small distance from New Hagerstown, but up the hill a bit north east. Her death was October 9, 1853, and she is buried in a country cemetery at New Hagerstown.

The CHILDREN of these two were:

#I	Mary	was born	January 5, 1818	New Hagerstown, Ohio.
#II	Nathan		April 3, 1819	New Hagerstown, Ohio
#III	Martha		April 1, 1821
#IV	Isabelle		March 7, 1823
#V	Charlotte	(teacher)	July 1, 1825
#VI	Elizabeth		Feb. 4, 1827
#VII	John W.	(teacher)	April 29, 1829
#VIII	Edward	(teacher)	March 28, 1831	(Leesburg address now - no move just P.O. change)
#IX	Margaret	(teacher	March 23, 1833
#X	Sarah Jane		March 27, 1835

In 1863 James took most of his family and came with Nathan Hagerty to Indiana. They first stopped in Stafford Township, DeKalb County, Indiana and he is buried there in Big Run Cemetery dying October 3, 1866.

Education looked big to these people, religious and capable the men all seemed to have a natural ability as carpenters and workers with wood, four of the children were teachers.

* * * * * * * * * * *

#1 Mary Hagerty born January 5, 1818 in Harrison County, Ohio (?) daughter of James Hagerty and Elinor Crawford died:

Married to John Brower
Born on_____at:
Son of_____ and _____

Died at_____on
They were buried:

Probably this couple married in Harrison County or close by. We have no records that anyone now of the family seem familiar with.

There were six children:

John Bower born_____at David Brower born_____at

Thomas Brower born_____at Israel Brower born_____at

Ellen Brower born_____at James Brower born_____at

Should some reader see this blank details missing page, and know of facts would they endeavor to inform Alice Schweitzer that this too might be a part of our family history.

Chapter #2 Nathan Hagerty born April 3, 1819 near New Hagerstown , Ohio - eldest son of James Hagerty and Elinor Crawford Hagerty. His wife was Mary Huston, born February 27, 1824 in Green County, Ohio, the daughter of Robert Huston and _____. Married_____at_____.

Both of these people were small boned and neat appearing. She with dark brown eyes and he more Irish coloring. He was a farmer and carpenter, skilled, quiet, Christian man. In 1863 (one wonders perhaps to take his family away from Civil War in which his eldest son James was killed) they came to Indiana. His father came with them, and they first settled near Butler in Stafford Twp., DeKalb County between, but remained there only a short time. Joined by others of the family including his brother came to Indiana too, when James I was ill and laid to rest. Later they moved to higher ground, more like Ohio in Franklin Twp., DeKalb County between Butler and Hamilton, Indiana. Here they lived out their lives and had a last child, Cassius Elmer. Both are buried in Hamilton, Indiana, Steuben County Cemetery and the grave marker is also for sons John and Elmer.

The Children were:

John Hagerty	(died in Civil War)	Harrison County, Ohio, birth
Martha
James Hagerty	22 December 1848	Carroll County, Ohio
William Henry Hagerty	30 January 1851	Harrison County, Ohio
Thomas Hagerty	7 April 1852	Harrison County, Ohio
Frank Hugh Hagerty	185-	Harrison County, Ohio
Emily Elinor Hagerty	22, November 1858	Harrison County, Ohio
Edward Hagerty	12, July 1861	Harrison County, Ohio
Cassius Elmer Hagerty	1, July 1864	DeKalb County, Indiana

latter deceased 11 January, 1892

Chapter III

Martha Hagerty, third child of James and Elinor Crawford Hagerty was born April 1, 1821, near New Hagerstown, Ohio. We do not know early details of her life but she was married on October 23, 1844 to George Treman, born _____.

They lived south of Butler to first corner and west almost to the railroad, and it is still in hands of one of family.

Martha passed away 7, December, 1881 and again Mr. Treman's death date is not in our present files.

They are buried in the old Cemetery south of Butler, Indiana.

Children included:

Mary Ellen Treman	born 3, April 1845
John Treman	born 4, March 1847
James Treman	born 15, November 1848
Paulina Treman	born 10, September 1850
Rocena Treman	born 12, October 1852 deceased?
Herman Treman	born 4, December 1854 deceased 1916
Albert Treman	born 20, April 1857
Roena Treman	born 7, October 1859

This family have given to each of us a constant delight. They are respected, careful and serene. There is a pride of being, and a deep abiding faith. These neat women, and warmly concerned families, warrant further acquaintance.

Chapter IV Isabelle Hagerty, second daughter of James and Elinor Crawford Hagerty was born in Harrison County, Ohio, 7 March, 1823. Reared to young womanhood, she met and married:

Samuel Hathaway of Green County, Pennsylvania, who was born 30, July, 1818. This marriage was 7, October, 1841 and the ceremony was performed by James Smith, Esquire, in Green County, Ohio.
They, too, came to Dekalb County, Indiana and lived in the area of Butler, Indiana. His death was 22, Sept., 1890 and burial in Steuben County, Hamilton, Indiana Cemetery, and is buried there beside him and her death was 8, October, 1900.

Six Children were born to this couple as follows:

James Hathaway	born	Saturday	8:00 A.M.	22, April 1843 Leesburg, Ohio
Sarah Jane Hathaway	born	Sunday	1:00 A.M.	28, December 1845 New Hagerstown, Ohio
Albert D. Hathaway	born	Sunday	7:00 A.M.	28, May 1848 New Hagerstown,O.
Alice Wiggins Hathaway	born	Thursday,	10:00 A.M.	3, July 1851 New Hagerstown -
Ira Alonzo Hathaway	born			8, July 1854 New Hagerstown -
Mary Elizabeth Hathaway	born			7, July 1857 Indiana????

This was an interesting family with a wide outreach into the community. Education, and self-improvement made a real place in their plans, their lives and each family member.

Chapter V

Charlotte Hagerty, fifth child of James and Elinor Crawford Hagerty was born on 1, July, 1825 near Harrison County, or New Hagerstown, Ohio. She was a teacher and married a man whose family had much of tradition and historical background.
Frederick Mackaman whose birthplace was_____ and birthdate_____.

They always resided in one of the larger Cities of Ohio, and took an active part in civic affairs, and business things.

They were parents of one daughter,

Louella Florence Mackaman born_____ at _____.

This girl had every advantage, and was given a very fine education. She was delightful as an older lady when she began coming to the Reunions.

Chapter VI

Elizabeth Hagerty, the sixth child of James Hagerty and Elinor Crawford Hagerty was born on 4, February, 1827 in Harrison County, Ohio.

Husband was Joseph Nickols (Nichols) ? - and we do not have any notations on his birthplace, date or personal history.

Neither do we know any details of their marriage date. We do know they lived in DeKalb County for several years. Later they moved to Sedalia, Missouri, where Joseph Nickols died, and presumably was buried. She then returned to Hamilton, Indiana, and the relatives who lived thereabouts... So, until her death, she was a resident of Hamilton, Indiana, Steuben County.

Her death came in 1914 at the age of 87. Mary and John Zeigler and their families were so good to "Aunt Liz" as she was called.

Chapter VII John W. Hagerty, the seventh child of James and Elinor Crawford Hagerty was born in the family home in Harrison County, Ohio on 29, April, 1829. He was also educated to be a teacher and followed this work many years. He married Caroline Carter in 1859 and she was of a Pioneer family of Steuben County, Indiana also.

The first year of their marriage, they lived in Missouri, where he taught school. They then moved back "Home" to the Old Homestead in Hills above New Hagerstown, Ohio.

After some years they came back to Indiana, and lived the rest of their lives in Troy Township, DeKalb County, Indiana. They were of Methodist faith. He also, as other of Hagerty men was skilled in working with wood.

Children 4:

Elinor Hagerty	born	at
Lewis Hagerty	born	at
Mary Hagerty	born	at
Baby Carlie Hagerty	died in 1877 an infant.

Uncle John became mentally distressed and in very poor health for quite some time prior to his death. Both are buried in the Carter Cemetery just off the Bellefontaine Road between Pleasant Lake and Hamilton, Indiana.

Chapter VIII Edward Crawford Hagerty, the eighth child of James and Elinor Crawford Hagerty was born in Carroll County, Ohio, 28, March, 1831. He grew up in the locality and was educated to become the third teacher in the family. He also was one of the family who traveled many miles and surely led a remarkable life.
On 28, June, 1855 he was married to:

Mary Elizabeth Van Buskirk. She was born 28, 1831 at New Philadelphia, Ohio, where they were also married.

Both are buried in Deer Lodge, Montana, she deceased 8 November, 1914 and Edward on 3 May, 1915, aged 84 years.

They had been married in Ohio, then moved to Albia, Iowa. From there to Osburn, Kansas and finally to Deer Lodge, Montana.

Children: 7.

Lavilla Hagerty	1, August, 1856	born at Albia, Iowa
Burr Hagerty	1857	born at Albia, Iowa - died aged 5 buried at Albia, Iowa
Carlia Hagerty	7, July, 1860	born at Albia, Iowa
Charles Edward Hagerty	died at age of 9 days
Ella Iowa Hagerty	died at 6 months age.
Mary Ada Sedella	1, November 1866	born at Albia, Iowa
Cora Mae Hagerty	died 13, January 1891	at Osbourne, Kansas.

Only three children grew to adulthood. Of these, Mary Ada Sedella Hagerty was unmarried. She came to visit and to have an never ending interest in all the family. She was a large woman, alert, a teacher and a delight to meet, and claim as family.
Della as she was known enjoyed the Hagerty Reunion, and claiming all the kinships awaiting there. Am sure if we but knew them, a full page for her life, which came to it's close in Deer Lodge, Montana would be all to short to detail the many things which she lived.
Many years she taught at Butte, Montana and boarded her sisters children in her home to further their education. She visited Hamilton, Indiana, in 1893 and again in 1934.

We assume she is buried with, or very near to her parents in Deer Lodge, Montana.

Chapter IX Margaret Hagerty, ninth child of James and Elinor Crawford Hagerty was born near New Hagerstown, Ohio, 23, March, 1833 and was the fourth of her family to be educated as a teacher for the public schools.
In the year of 186 , she was married to William Noragon whom we have neither birth date or death. We do know she was left a widow with one small daughter to raise.

Her second marriage in 1863 was to Michael Slentz, and these two either were in Indiana at this time, or came this way quite soon after marriage, into DeKalb County, Indiana and later into Michigan's southern part.

Margaret's children were:

Belle Noragon	born	at	Ohio
Burr Slentz	born	at
Cora Slentz	born	at
Ada Slentz	born	at
Margaret Slentz (Maggie)	born	at

This woman had a truly marvelous way with her. She passed on to her children a serenity, a gracious way of daily life and a beauty of face, and of soul. It is a pleasure to recall those of her descendants whom we regret we see all to little of.

Chapter X

Sarah Jane Hagerty, tenth child of James and Elinor Crawford Hagerty was born near New Hagerstown, Ohio on 27, March, 1835.

This youngest child of a large family had not one husbnad but three.

Her first Husband was John Middleton of whom we know nothing but the name, and that they lived together only a very short time. There were never any children of Sarah Jane;s.

Another unusual thing about her was that after this separation, she worked, was employed until her second marriage. At this time in history, each of these things was unusual.

The second husband was one Benjamin Brunner, a miller by trade, and as she was a native Ohioan, the dates of his death and birth are not in our records, nor of what family he was a part of.

She moved into the Butler area where many of the others of the family were living. Where nieces and nephews assured her of care and the comfort of family sharing.

Her third, and last marriage was to Henry Keller of Butler, Indiana. They resided on his farm south of Butler, and west. At his death, Sarah Jane moved into Butler. She resided there until an accident befell her that made different arrangements necessary. Then she moved to the "Soldiers Home" where she lived until Death. Burial was also for her in the Hamilton, Indiana, Steuben County Cemetery. The legends that surround this little "Aunt Sarah Jane" indicate she was a happy-go-lucky, a superb sense of humour and that she smoked a tiny corn cob pipe.

These are the six children of Mary Hagerty, eldest daughter of James and Elinor Crawford Hagerty.

We would appreciate word of this family and the growth and changes through the generations. We affix this sheet to denote to all who read that we are aware there is this family, part of our family, of whom we know presently nothing.

Chapter II

A-1 John Hagerty, I, the eldest son of Nathan and Mary Ann Huston Hagerty, was born at the family home almost on a line between Harrison and Carroll County near New Hagerstown, Ohio. His birthdate was and he was a casualty of the Civil War on with a rank and placement of

In the Cemetery in Hamilton, Indiana, Steuben County at the gravesite of his father, mother and his brother Elmer there waves a Civil War Flag each Memorial Time.

Chapter II

A-2 Martha Hagerty, eldest daughter of Nathan and Mary Ann Huston Hagerty was born in 1847 in the Homestead in Ohio, and came to Indiana with her father and family in 1863.

Her husband was Peter Lanning, of whome we have no details, but the fact that they both are buried, apparently without children. They are beside James Hagerty I who are in the Big Run Church Cemetery, Stafford Twp., DeKalb County, Indiana, southeast of Butler, Indiana.

This compiler has visited with Uncle Edward Hagerty in Auburn with Lannings whom he said were relatives of Peter Lanning. Names, dates and circumstance did not fasten in the memory of a child.

We gathered that like the Martha of the Bible, this one was close to the members, and their needs in her family.

James Hagerty, II the second son of Nathan and Mary Ann Huston Hagerty was born 22 December, 1848 in the homestead in Ohio.
He came to Indiana as a young lad of fifteen years.
Mary Dirrim who was born 30, September, 1857 in DeKalb County, Indiana, became his bride on June 27, 1874, at Angola, Indiana.

We do not know all the things they did, or whatever was the plans, for there have been so little facts kept.

Three children:

Hagerty	Commodore	14, November, 1875	in Steuben, County, Indiana
	Charles	6, November, 1878	in Steuben, County, Indiana
	James III	4, May 1882	in Steuben, County, Indiana

Hagerty Infant, which died at age of nine days, buried, Hamilton, Indiana

James II died 2, December, 1882 and is buried at Hamilton, Indiana.

Later, Mary Dirrim Hagerty became the wife of Praul.
He was a widower, with children. To this marriage was born Eugene Praul, who was married to Zura Ginder, and they had a son, Lloyd Praul. We include this because to Gene and his family, the Hagerty's were "his family" and we all agreed.

Mary Dirrim Hagerty Praul was a delightful person. For years she lived widowed the second time, and Butler was her home. William and Olive made her comfort their concern and we all spent jouous hours in her delightful home.

Chapter II

A-3a Commodore Hagerty, the eldest son of James II and Mary Dirrim Hagerty was born 14, November, 1875 in Steuben County, Indiana. At the age of 7 his father died and he spent much time up in Franklin Township on that farm under the hill at Grandpa's and at Uncle Will Hagerty's.
Ada Wyckoff became his wife on 10, February, 1897 and had a birthdate of 3, December, 1876, born at Butler, Indiana. Their wedding was at her parents home and the Rev. M. E. Hammond officiated. Her parents were James Wesley Wyckoff and Delilah Ann Handy.

Children were:

Hagerty:	Vernon	born 5, May, 1897 at Butler, Indiana
	Hazel	born 24 November 1898 at Butler, Indiana
	Kenneth	born 10, May 1902 at Fayette, Ohio
	Wilma	born 12, April, 1904 at Butler, Indiana
	Geneva	born 3 August 1907 at Butler, Indiana
	Gertrude	born 16, October 1910 at Butler, Indiana
	Irene	born 6, January 1913 at Butler, Indiana
	Adrian	born 15, November 1915 at Butler, Indiana
	Ora	born 12, June 1919 at Butler, Indiana

This was a home that was rollicking, happy, and where you liked to go and stay, and just belong. There was so much of affection and sharing that they were rich in the heritage that each took from that home into their separate ones.

Ada knew considerable of illness in her later years. Her death on 2, April, 1952 and Commodore's 26, December, 1947.

Burial in _____.

Chapter II

A-3a Vernon Elroy Hagerty, eldest son of Commodore and Ada V. Wyckoff was born 5, May, 1898 at Butler, DeKalb County, Indiana.

Marguerite Bates was his bride in 1921, and their joy in a child, a son born was lost in the grief of a mother dying in child-birth. This was 21, November, 1924 and they resided in Battle Creek, Michigan.

Vernon had quite a military record which should be attached to this sheet, but was not furnished. These facts are most valuable to the history not only of family but of the country, our America. He was a large man, and most handsome, but even more valuable was his pleasant nature.

Child: A Son:

Hagerty, Richard Vernon, 21, November, 1924 at Battle Creek, Michigan, who was married on March 7, 1947 to Jessie Pearl Arnold.

Again facts, records were not included.

4 Children were born:

Chapter II

D-1 William Henry Hagerty, fourth child of Nathan and Mary Ann Huston Hagerty was born in the Harrison, Carroll County area on January 30, 1851. When he was 12 years old, the family left Ohio and came overland into Indiana near Butler, but all in DeKalb County. Later they came into Franklin Twp., between Hamilton and Butler. He took as his bride, Olive Rhoda Freeby, daughter of John and Sarah Allen Freeby on May 23, 1872, in the home of the bride's parents, Troy Twp., DeKalb County, by Charles Everitts, Notary Public. She was born 10, March, 1853, that home.

Grandfather moved buildings, he did carpenter work, and cleared land, all to augment the family income through farm work. They were never renters, but always land owners. Pride kept all the deeds, all the tax receipts intact thru the years. His church work was never neglected.

Children:

Hagerty,	Cassius William,	born 18, December, 1872	DeKalb Co., Indiana
Hagerty,	Cynthia Delight,	born 20, October, 1874	DeKalb Co., Indiana
Hagerty,	John Allen,	born 24, January, 1877	DeKalb Co., Indiana

They lived 65 years on their acres in Districts one and two (overlapping) in Franklin Twp., DeKalb County. Both were members of Hamilton, Indiana Church of Christ where they labored faithfully as members for over fifty years. Both were splendid neighbors, Grandmother a skilled mid-wife and a quilt maker of renown. Both were tender to the family, and a daily reader of the Bible. Grandmother was a housekeeper of note and much cleanliness. Grandfather had many fruit trees, they grew berries and he kept bees, a husbandman.

Chapter II

D-1a Cassius William Hagerty, eldest son of William and Olive Freeby Hagerty was born 18, December, 1872 in the Freeby home in Troy Twp., DeKalb County. The family resided on the farm in Franklin Twp., - he was a carpenter by trade.
Minnie Beard, born March 15, 186- -were married at the home of the bride's parents on 2, December, 1893 by Thomas French. She had a loom and was a weaver of rugs for long years. A charter member of the Church of Christ at Hamilton, before her marriage. Whole family were members through the years.

Children:

Hagerty, Ives Alma	born 4, February, 1895	Otsego Twp., Steuben Co. Ind.
Hagerty, Lota	born 27, May, 1899	Otsego Twp., Steuben Co., Ind.
Hagerty, Virgil William	born 17, July, 1905	Otsego Twp., Steuben Co., Ind.

The family lived on the Beard Homestead, north of Hamilton, for long years, until they moved into Caroline Willard home, Minnie Hagerty's aunt. Her parents were a pioneer family of Truine Beard and mother was a Rummel. Cassius made boats, had a greater demand than he could supply, and was a craftsman in woodworking, finishing.

Later, when they moved into town, he continued to have a shop until not able to do the work. Many hours and much loving care he put into the cemetery where so many of his ancestors, and loved ones slept. At that time, each person was responsible for the care of their portion. This he did with a pleasure that few know or care about. Grandma Hagerty was in their home several months after the stroke that she was made bedfast by. A lady came in to give her care, but she lived in that home, while all the families shared in her care.

Minnie passed away 2, November, 1954 and he in 17, September 1955. Burial in Hamilton Cemetery, Hamilton, Indiana.

Chapter II
D-1b

Ives Alma Hagerty, eldest daughter of Cassius and Minnie Beard Hagerty was born 4, February, 1895 in Otsego Twp., A high school graduate, she was married 22, October, 1915 in Angola and had been baptized 9, March 1909 in Hamilton Church of Christ - where their memberships continue. Her husband, John Henry Mills, born 15, December, 1892 in Troy Twp., DeKalb County, Indiana, son of George Mills and Melissa Ann Mortorff.

John farmed the Mills acres, and worked at the Butler Co., long years. Patient, quiet and a faithful Elder in the Church. Ives was a needlewoman of skill, and her work was much in demand, because of quality and beauty of design.

Child:

Mills, Delores June born 22, September, 1930 in Garrett Hospital, Garrett, Indiana, DeKalb County.

She married Char. Barrett in February 1949 and to this union one son was born:

Donald Lynn Barrett: 22 September, 1949 in Angola, Indiana.
Second marriage to C. R. Clark was in 1955
Melissa Ann Clark 12, January, 1966 born in Auburn, Hospital Auburn, DeKalb County, Indiana.

Donald Lynn Barrett, born 22, September, 1949 served in the military. He married Lesa Ann McCroan, 14, March, 1971.

June Clark and Miss Melissa live presently in Florida. She has worked many hours as a Nurses' Aide in various hospitals and is considered an excellent help with all phases of caring for the sick. Charles Clark works with the Trucking industry so they have a varied life.

Chapter II

D-1c Lota Hagerty, second daughter of Cassius and Minnie Beard Hagerty was born in Otsego, Twp., Steuben County, Indiana on 27, May, 1899. She was married to Charles Everetts on 13, May, 1920. His parents were Gilbert Everetts and Maude Betz Everetts. He was a railroader until retirement, living in Garrett, and later in Willard, Ohio.

Children:

Hagerty, Raymond 12, July, 1917 Steuben County, Indiana, was married in March, 1946 to Joan White, daughter of White and Alta Brown White. They have one daughter, Hagerty, Marilyn Kay born 11, April, 1950, in Tuscon, Arizona.

Raymond has a long military record of service in World War II in the jungles of Burma, helping the Air Force keep our planes flying the "Hump" and afterward in the United States. "Cash" as he is lovingly known, is as skilled with his hands and wood as the others of his Kin.

Other Children of Lota Hagerty Everetts:

Auliene Everetts	born 5, December 1922	Garrett, DeKalb County, Ind.

Chapter II
D-1d

Virgil William Hagerty, son of Cassius and Minnie Beard Hagerty was born in Otsego Twp., Steuben County, near Hamilton, Indiana on 17, July, 1905. He too had a way with working with wood, but chose to get an education and be a teacher. While teaching in south-eastern Ohio, he met Bertha Fisher, of that school district and she was born on 29, January, 1909 at Belmont County, Ohio. They were married October 8, 1926 in Garrett, Indiana.

Children:

Hagerty:	Ruth Bernadine	born August 3, 1927	in Hamilton, Indiana, DeKalb County
Hagerty:	Emma Jean	born 25, May, 1930	same residence.

The family lived in Butler while girls were small and Virgil taught school. Virgil was an elder in the Butler Church of Christ. Both young ladies were well educated. Later, after the daughters were married, they moved to Auburn, where he was for years the Attendance Officer for DeKalb County Schools. Later he retired first in Steuben County and later still to Florida. His marriage to Dorothy McDaniels was a part of these later years. He did much decorating and was skilled at this.

***** ***** ***** *****

Ruth Bernadine Hagerty, daughter of Virgil and Bertha Fisher Hagerty was married to Thomas Kortz. They lived in Ohio, later moved to Allen County, Indiana, and live here in 1972. They do have children but did not return a story, or a report for this history.

Emma Jean Hagerty, the second daughter of Virgil and Bertha Fisher Hagerty was married to Richard Bourquin, who was a Marine Veteran of World War II and saw much conflict. Wounded and honored, he became a basket ball coach and a teacher, and she too, taught until several years and two daughters kept her home. They were in DeKalb County many years, and then live in the south-east part of Allen County. He teaches in East Allen Schools.

Again, no details further were furnished for this history.

Chapter II
A-2

Cynthia Delight Hagerty, only daughter of William and Olive Rhoda Freeby Hagerty, born 20, October, 1874 in Franklin Twp., DeKalb County, Indiana, was married to Arthur Bert Noragon of DeKalb County, in 1895. He was a farmer and they lived for years on the farm that her parents gave them the ground. He was a "handy-man" with animals and was busy - Veterinarians were scarce. Later they moved a short distance south-west to the Noragon place, where they lived out their lives. She was skilled in housekeeping, needlework and after a bout with measles in March, died of Cancer on 26, December, 1920, buried in the Hagerty plot in Hamilton Cemetery. He died 28, April, 1956.

Children:

Noragon: Loren	born 11, April, 1896	at the family home.
Noragon: Warren	born 26, July, 1898	at the family home.

Loren was in the service in World War I. He was never sent overseas, but served in the States. No details are given. Loren never married. He worked for years at the Mill at Hamilton, Indiana, and now lives in retirement on the Hagerty acres which were his mother's dower gift.

Warren Noragon, born 26, July, 1898 in Franklin Twp., also - married Doris Meyers, born in Steuben County, Indiana. Her grandmother was Mrs. Weldon of the Lake James family who owned land at the lakeside as pioneer families.

Warren worked at Auburn Foundry, contracted Tuberculosis at that job and spent time in Irene Byron TB Sanitarium near Fort Wayne. He died 15, August, 1933 and is buried in Hamilton, Indiana Cemetery.

Children:

Noragon: Richard	born 12, August, 1921	died at birth
Noragon: Robert	born 19, September, 1922	DeKalb County, Indiana
Noragon: Ruth	born 1, January, 1925	DeKalb County, Indiana
Noragon: Deloris	born 2, June, 1927	DeKalb County, Indiana
Noragon: Lyle Dean	born 16, October, 1932	DeKalb County, Indiana

She reared her family in Butler, Indiana and later married Thomas Johnson who had no children.

Robert Noragon, son of Warren and Doris Meyers Noragon, married Reas, an Auburn girl. They had just one child, Judy. His Uncle's the "Meyers' at Weldon's Landing", Lake James employed him, and he owned property there. When a young lady, Judy succumbed to some illness and died. There were no other children.

***** ***** ***** *****

Ruth Noragon was married to Walter Heller and had one son. Later she married Lewis Wilson from Butler, Indiana and they live east of Auburn. He was a mason by trade and there are several other children. Even grandchildren, but no reports were furnished.

Deloris had a handicap which was attributed to a form of TB, perhaps contracted from her father. This affected the hip, so her walking was concerned. She is beautiful. Married to_____, Angola, Indiana, she lived in Florida and has children.

Lyle Dean was in Service for the Korean War. He is married and lives at St. Joe, or did. They too, have a couple of children, but this compiler knows no specifics.

Chapter II
A/3

John Allen Hagerty, second son of William H. and Olive Rhoda Freeby Hagerty, was born 24, January 1877 in DeKalb County, Indiana. He loved schoolings and while opportunities were meager books were his pleasure, as was all math. He like the other Hagerty men was skilled with hammer and saw and wood.

Lela R. Rice, born 16, January, 1881 at Williams County, Ohio, became his bride on 29, January, 1898. She too, was ever desirous of more learning. Launching out at every opportunity, skilled in home-making and with her needle, she, with him made home a beautiful experience, not only for their family, but in the community.

She died 30, July, 1943 from Cancer and is buried on the Hagerty plot, Hamilton Cemetery, Otsego Twp., Steuben County, and he sleeps beside her since 4, January, 1959.

They owned a portion of the Hagerty Homestead acres in Franklin Township, DeKalb County. This was to them a privilege and a sacred trust, Landowners, citizens.

Children:

Hagerty:	Flora Fay	6, November 1899	Franklin Twp., DeKalb Co. Ind.
Hagerty:	Elmer Stewart	20, June, 1902	Franklin Twp., DeKalb Co. Ind.
Hagerty:	Alice Maude	9 September, 1909	Franklin Twp., DeKalb Co. Ind.
Hagerty:	Doris Marie	5, July, 1914	Franklin Twp., DeKalb Co. Ind.

Church was for this family the Church of Christ at Hamilton, the little Red School House on what is now Road One (State) sufficed for the grades. The High School was a transferred student into Hamilton, Indiana, and Steuben County. Music was a sweet teacher who drive a horse and buggy, and came to the home, where the organ was taught with love. Add to this, a mother and grandmother who worked and sang as they went daily about the chores of home --and you see a picture.

Dad was always so just, and so considerate. His children loved him, but the grandchildren adored him. Time was a gift when it could be spent with "Grandpa Great" as they spoke.

Chapter II

A/3/1 Flora Hagerty, eldest daughter of John and Lela Rice Hagerty was born in Franklin Twp., DeKalb County, Indiana, November 6, 1899, and was reared in the local schools, the Church of Christ and grew up to marry one of the local young men of the neighborhood, one Claude Harold Hurraw, born on May 15, 1896. They were married in Macon, Georgia in May, 1918 while he served as an enlisted soldier, a private in the army, prior to his going to France.

She lived with her parents, and his, while the service period existed. Later, they lived in Fort Wayne, and Hamilton area.

She died on May 5, 1969 in St. Joseph Hospital, Fort Wayne, and is buried in Greenlawn Cemetery, in West Allen County.

Children:

Howard Lyle, 26, March, 1921, Steuben County, Hamilton, Indiana
Guy Edmund, 30, January, 1927, Allen County, Fort Wayne, Indiana
Evelyn Marie, 6, July, 1928, Allen County, Fort Wayne, Indiana
Gwendolyn Loraine, 6, June, 1931, Allen County, Fort Wayne, Indiana

These two were great travelers with Historical Society, - they were versed in antique knowledge, and he was skilled with working with wood and with brass. She was a Bible Student, and needleworker.

***** ***** ***** *****

Howard Lyle Hurraw married Viola Garrett, and had a life time career with the Pennsy Railroad. He served 112 days in Army service, and received a Medical Discharge. The ability that Howard posesses with growing plants, flowers and a garden are amazing and beauty to see. He shares this ability and his handiwork with all who came his way. Many came to see his garden and his flowers. Hospitality looms high on their list and travelers were often met there. Like the older folk, several generations earlier he knows much of herbs, roots and good old "folk remedies". He interested himself in Indian lore, and is a recognized authority on this subject. Like his mother, he is a Bible student of authority, and ability.

Children:

Carol Ann, 23, March, 1942
Claude Victor 13, July, 1944
Henry Edmund 14, February, 1946
Juanita Loraine 30, June, 1947

All born in Allen County, Indiana.

Of the Howard Hurraw children we have limited detail. It is to be here noted that Howard Lyle Hurraw changed his name to the old original spelling of LaHurreau and his descendants honor this spelling.

Carol Ann LaHurreau married Joseph Baltes, II and is an R.N. in this early winter of 1972 and they are expecting their first child.

Claude Victor LaHurreau married first, Lena Pion and they have one child, Teressa Ann LaHurreau.
His second wife is Nancy Archer, and their daughter is Dawn LaHurreau.
He is an electrician by trade.

Henry Edmund LaHurreau served in the armed services upon graduating as an X-Ray Technician. After his air-force service in Korea, and United States, he went into the Goodrich Plant. His wife is Shirley Brown of Kansas.

Juanita L. LaHurreau is the wife of Michael Kelder and the mother of three small daughters:
Marie Kelder born Allen County
Tanya Kelder born Allen County
Rebecca Kelder born 1971, Ft. Wayne, Allen County, Indiana.

Guy Edmund Hurraw, (note that this son of Flora Hagerty and Claude Hurraw did not change the spelling of his name) grew up, educated in Fort Wayne Schools. An early bout with TB left definite impressions. His first stint in the Armed Forces was as a Conscientious Objector, with part of his service in Wisconsin. Later, an older and mature young man enlisted in the Armed Service of His Country and served in Austria, and Germany , in the M.P.'s where he grew in rank and stature. He married Wilma Iliff, and she was the daughter of a Weslyan Methodist minister and his wife. She was born 22, June, 1930.

Guy likes to build, and like Howard he goes in for organic gardening also. He is a large man, and pleasant, resembling some of the Hagerty men of years back.

Children:

Phyllis Iliff Hurraw	born 9, March, 1949 near Geneva, Indiana
Marilyn Hurraw	born 19, July, 1954		Fort Wayne, Ind.	Allen Co.
Rex Hurraw	born	May	Fort Wayne, Ind.	Allen Co.
Rod Howard Hurraw	born	September	Fort Wayne, Ind.	Allen Co.
Ronda Marie Hurraw	born	December	Fort Wayne, Ind.	Allen Co.

Thomas Barger and Phyllis I. Hurraw were married and live in the edge of Ohio where he farms. They have one little girl.

***** ***** ***** *****

Evelyn Marie Hurraw married Edgar Chapman, born 27, November, 1924, - the boy next door, and they have lived in the vicinity of Allen County and Fort Wayne, Indiana always. Married, 6, July, 1946. Evelyn has always been noted for helping others. Concerned when others did not care, she is blessed by many who have had real need which she did something about.

Children:

Barbara Jean Chapman born 22 December, 1951 and married to John Igney with a small son, Chad Igney.
Deborah Kay Chapman who was born 2, November, 1953 and who married _____ Miller in May, 1972.

Charles Chapman born September 2, 1955 and is this year a Junior at Churubusco High, Whitley County School.

Chapter II
A-3/1

Gwendolyn L. Hurraw, youngest child of Flora and Claude Hurraw was born on June 6, 1931. She grew up in Fort Wayne, and attended schools therein. Included was Comptometer School and she worked in the office at GE. She married Lawrence Raber, also of Allen County, born 9, April, 1930 on 28 March, 1953. He, too had service record in the Armed Services. They are active in the Church of God, and Gwen teaches a Bible Class there. She also sews and they are gardeners as well as liking to travel. While her parents were able, they went many places about the States and enjoyed seeing the historical places.

Wayne Edward	born 30, March, 1930	DeKalb County, Indiana
Jim Adam	born 5, April, 1935	DeKalb County, Indiana

This family attended the public grade schools in DeKalb County and were graduated from the Hamilton, Indiana, High Schools. They were a beautiful family. All the sons are from 6'2" to 6'4" and athletic. The girls were also tall, one very blond, one dark, attractive.

Each of the Sons except Bernard were in the Armed Services some time. Bernard has lived around Jackson, Michigan and has been a Deputy Sheriff, and many other Service type involvements. Thomas was a career Marine, blond, handsome in his dress blues--he saw Service in Japan, Korea, Viet Nam, and in the United States. Wayne was an MP and in Austria - later becoming and remaining a State Police Officer in Alaska. Jim too, was in Service, and had an honorable career. We look to this Service with pride.

Elinor Janet Hagerty, eldest daughter of Elmer and Margaret Hagerty was the wife of Robert Stytle, a wounded Marine who was never too well, during their marriage. They had one son:
Robert Stytle, II born January 24, 19___. Red headed, Bobby later was in Service, (armed service) married Judy_____ and had one small son who is named Jimmy Stytle. They live in Fort Wayne, Indiana.
A later marriage for Elinor with one Julian Chevilot has been a joyous walk. During her mother's later illness, and since her death, the kindness she has put forth in love to her father are beautiful to see.

***** ***** ***** *****

Lela Lucille Hagerty married Marvin Jackson, born 17, October, 1928 was married at the Hamilton Church of Christ in November, 1947. They have always lived on the farm. Marvin was a baseball player, and so is the son. Lela has been a secretary in later years, and is an excellent housekeeper, homemaker and one who did so much through the years to assist her ailing mother.

Children:

Lynn Jackson	born November 4, 1948 in DeKalb County
Janet	born November 14, 1952 in Steuben County.

Lynn is married, is getting his degree at Ball State in Muncie - his daughter is little Stephanie.
Janet won many prizes at the piano, excelled in school and is presently at Ball State, Muncie. All attend the Church of Christ at Hamilton, when able to be home to attend.

Wayne Hagerty, second son of Elmer and Margaret Hagerty was born 30, March, 1930. He like all of Elmer's sons excelled at sports and were basket ball heroes. He married a school chum, Beverly Teagardin, born_____1933 in _____1950. He entered Service in 1951 and as prior stated, served in Germany and Austria.

Children: Denslow born 29, October, 1953
Kelly born in Alaska.

The latter children all born either in Fairbanks, College, or some outpost of the State Police of Alaska. Beverly is an interior Decorator, and a short wave Operator for State Police. They are truly PIONEERS - having lived through the Earthquake of Good Friday_____ and later had their home destroyed by flooding in Fairbanks, all taken in stride.

***** ***** ***** *****

Thomas William Hagerty, third son of Elmer and Margaret Hagerty was so very ill when a small child. He was so blond-red headed he had a look of frailty for years. He was bothered through long years by a back ailment, but had a most fulfilled life despite all this. He married Sue Thompson of Pleasant Lake, Indiana in 1949 and to them was born two daughters:

Mary Frances Hagerty born 24, July, 1950
Karen Sue Hagerty born 29, July, 1952

Both girls are now grown and married with babies.

Their is a later marriage, the daughter of a Marine Officer whom Thomas met in North Carolina. He served in the Marines from 1949 through 1969 and was Honorably Discharged.

***** ***** ***** *****

Jim Adam Hagerty, the youngest of Elmer and Margaret Hagerty was the apple of Grandpa John Hagerty's eye. He finished school and went into the Service in the Marines in July of 1953. He was married to Patricia Anderson of Kendallville in 1958

Issue: Stewart Allen Hagerty born 30, July, 1959 in Noble County, Indiana.

A later marriage to a Mrs. Stabe with three sons to raise. They live in Kendallville where Jim is in business.

Chapter II

Alice Maude, second daughter of John Allen and Lela Rice Hagerty was born September 9, 1909, reared in Franklin Twp., DeKalb County. Due to the ill health of the mother, she spent long hours with grandparents William and Olive Freeby Hagerty on the adjoining farm. An early accident with a sled had resulted in a curvature of the spine which directed her activities to different channels. She was an apt student, excelled in Ancient History, Bible History and public speaking. From this type of doing came the interest in Genealogy which she pursues.
Her Husband, Lloyd G. Schweitzer, born April 22, 1910 in DeKalb County, son of Edwin and Edith Bickel Schweitzer, served 55 months in World War II Pacific Theatre.

Jeanne Anne Schweitzer was born 18, June, 1933.

She was reared in this atmosphere of "family history" and has seen it compiled for posterity from the bits and pieces, fragments of hearts and attainments to a living work. She has always followed office work, at which she ranks high. Her marriage to Frank L. Ford, in 27, June, 1953 was followed by the birth of:
Michael Lewis Ford, born 27, April 1954 in Allen County, Lutheran Hospital

Cindy Lou Ford born 26, October 1955 same.

These families have followed the pattern as members of the Church of Christ where they have taken an active part. Lloyd has been and is a member of the Official Board of his church, and both Alice and Jeanne have taught in Bible School. Taking a prominent part of the church and social communities where they lived. They take pride in their homes - their service for others, and the many ways they are privileged to serve their Lord.

Both Lloyd G. Schweitzer in 38th Division, and Frank L. Ford in active service have military records of honor.

Lloyd, Jeanne, Michael and Cindy Lou are all talented musicians.

Doris Marie Hagerty, youngest child of John and Lela Rice Hagerty grew up on the Hagerty farm along with the others. She early fell and threw her knee joint out of place. From that time on, until thirty years afterwards she had much distress. Then had both spinal and knee surgery. Her husband is Willis J. Matson, born January 23, 1913, son of Merritt and Erma Miller Matson were married 7, December 1935 in Angola, Indiana. Willis farmed, and Doris was a skilled housekeeper, and sewing was one of her joys. She was later the book-keeper for the business which they owned, and the mobile home park. Willis was in World War II and was wounded twice on Italian soil while out on duty. His service record is attached.

Children:

Chapter II
A-4/1

Maud Hagerty was well educated as local times were, to teach school, and married Frank Flaishans on February 17, 1899. They had three children:

Children:

Russell Errett Flaishans	6, September, 1900
Howard Flaishans	1, August, 1904
Beulah	1, August, 1904

In later years, the family lived in Angola, and they took in roomers for Tri-State College. Frank also worked as a custodian there. The Christian training they gave to the students, and the home life abound in their Father's faith, in Church of Christ. A housekeeper par excellence was Maud and her table groaned with delicious food.

***** ***** ***** *****

Russell Errett Flaishans was a tall, shy man who worked at the Newspaper trade. He excelled in his work. On April 24, 1928 he married a young widow, Maud Fradenburg, and took her small daughter to his heart, quite as his own. This quiet couple continued to live in Angola, Indiana, and although retired, they still live there.

Howard Flaishans was the eldest of the twins. More mischievous than a little, he got around. He too, worked on Newspaper, at one time owned the Fremont, Indiana paper. Worked until retirement on the Fort Wayne Newspapers as a linotypist, and had an abiding interest in everything that went on. He married Miss Virgil Straw of Fremont. They had no children but did much church work. He has been a big help in the Reunion, and the Hagerty History plans.

Beulah Flaishans was the younger of the twins and had the advantage of being the only girl in the family. She had a good education, and married Lawrence Seyfer. There were no children, and in later years she knew considerable of sorrow and ill health. She died 26, June, 1954.

Ethel M. Hagerty, second daughter of Thomas and Clarinda Rummell Hagerty, was born 3, December, 1881 in Steuben County, Indiana. She was given an education, and taught school several years. She met and married Carl Cronkwright, of Servia, Indiana, born 25, February, 1886 and they were wed August 6, 1919. He was a man with a trade, and they lived in Elkhart County for some years.

Child:

Ray E. Cronkwright was born there, 3, September, 1920.

After her father's death, her mother lived with her for many years. Finally they retired to a farm near Fremont, Steuben County, and there she died in 22, August, 1959.

Ray E. Cronkwright was a super scholar, and made grades that were a credit to any family. Reared in a Church of Christ home, he was an unusual boy. He married on 6, September, Mary J. Wells from Angola, and they lived in Fort Wayne. He was able to take advantage to special school training through IT&T and became a high salaried engineer. Finally his Company moved him from Fort Wayne, to California, where he presently lives. He has travelled all over the World in his work. He would be the last to say so, but his is a super-intelligence, avowed by those who worked with him.

Child:

Bonnie Jean Cronkwright, born 5, June, 1951 in Fort Wayne, Indiana. She, too, has a wonderful ability and education. Reared by her gentle mother, and in their fine Christian home one knows too, her mark will be left on those among whom she lives. Ray and Mary cared for his father, Carl, long years and several cancer surgeries. He died in California, and was brought back to be buried here in Steuben County, in 1970.

Chapter II
A-4/3

Llewellen Hagerty, eldest son of Thomas and Clarinda Rummell Hagerty, was born 21, December, 1883 at Hamilton, Indiana. He was a fine, pleasant person and run the Huckster Wagon, out from the Hagerty General Store, of Hamilton. He married Elizabeth Oberlin "Libby" who was as much admired by all as was Lee. She, the daughter of Oliver and Samantha Oberlin, who lived south in Franklin Twp., farmers there. During the flu season in November 1916, Lee was stricken and died. He left a small son, and his name:

Oliver Thomas Hagerty, born 17, June, 1912 in Steuben County, Indiana.

This youngster was a handsome lad, gently reared by his widowed mother until her untimely death of pneumonia. The Grandparents Oberlin then took his parents place in making him a home. He married Lucile McPheeters from Garrett, Indiana. They lived there for some years and had two children:

Children:

Thomas Lee Hagerty II born in 1945 Garrett, Indiana, DeKalb County
Sally Jo Hagerty born in 1947 Garrett, Indiana, DeKalb County

Oliver Thomas Hagerty passed away in 28, February, 1954. His widow later married William H. Keyes and they live in Fremont, Indiana.

Thomas Lee Hagerty on June 29, 1971 married Martha Kay Crandall, whose parents are the Roy C. Crandalls. They were to live in Freemont.

Sally Jo Hagerty married "Bill" Fifer and apparently they live in Fremont.

Chapter II
A-4/4

Arthur Hagerty, third and youngest son of Thomas and Clarinda Rummell Hagerty was reared in Hamilton. He was a carpenter by trade, sang in the Church of Christ Choir, was a tall slim man. He served in WW I for some considerable time. Wed on 28, August, 1919, his wife was Esther Zeigler, born 19, July, 1898 at Bristol, Indiana and a school teacher. They lived beside the Elkhart River, Bristol, Indiana. Arthur died there on 8, April, 1946.

Children:

Arthur Hagerty, Jr., born 10, June, 1920, Elkhart County, Bristol
Louise Miriam Hagerty, born 11, August, 1924, Elkhart County, Bristol

No details further of Esther, or son Arthur, but know they live in Bristol. Louise Miriam Hagerty married Robert Irelan. They, too, continued to live in Bristol, we are told.

Chapter II
A-5

Frank Hugh Hagerty, son of Nathan and Mary Ann Huston Hagerty was born in Ohio, Harrison/Carroll County as others were. He was a large man, unlike William, Edward and Thomas. Like them, he was adept at working in wood, and farmed a little on the side. His wife was Milly Carson. They moved to Muncie, Indiana, and purchased a farm there a little way out. Uncle Hugh died there and was buried near Muncie on 27, August, 1930, aged 74 years.

Children:

Leo Hagerty	born	at
Guy Hagerty	born	at
Emma Hagerty	born	died as an infant
Roy Hagerty	born	at

Since Hugh Hagerty died the family have seen little, and heard little from them. Roy was a career Military man, very splendid in his uniform of World War I., and he married a lady whom he met with service connections. Guy Hagerty had a son, and that is all this writer gleans about them.

Chapter II
A-6

Emily Elinor Hagerty, the daughter of Nathan and Mary Ann Huston Hagerty was born in Carroll County, Ohio, 22, November, 1860 and came when a child to Indiana. She had a good education and married John S. Wood, who was born 31, March, 1861 at Knightstown, Henry County, Indiana. She lived and died in Ashley, Indiana, where she was well known as a dressmaker. She died 11, June, 1923, buried in Circle Hill, Hudson, Indiana, and he passed away 20, October, 1915 and was buried there also.

Issue:

Carrie Wood, born 3, May, 1892 at Hudson, Steuben County, Indiana, educated in Hudson, Ashley, Indiana, and attended the Church of Christ at Ashley. Indiana. She married Otto Hovarter, born June 3, 1886 son of Isaiah and Hattie Shanks Hovarter of DeKalb County, Ashley, Indiana, on 2, November, 1912 at the Fred Thomas Home, he being a minister. They owned the National Vault business in Ashley for years, until Otto had failing health and they sold and moved to Florida.

Children:

Maynard Otto Hovarter	23, June, 1915	at Ashley, DeKalb County, Indiana
Maurice Raymond Hovarter	31, July, 1918	at Ashley, DeKalb County, Indiana
Eleanor Eloise Hovarter	18, September, 1924	at Ashley, DeKalb County
Nancy Carol Hovarter	15, October, 1932	at Ashley, DeKalb County, Ind.

Maynard Hovarter, a CPA is one of the unmarried ones. He lived the last few years of her life with his mother at Edgewater, Florida.

Maurice, like his mother a red-head with brown eyes, was in Service and was captured on Bataan, Philipines. Sadly enough he endured that death, the Bataan Death March until they were in Mukhen, Manchuria where he succumbed to acute dysentery, and lack of care on 29, December, 1942. His body was returned to Indiana and his family to be buried in Circle Hill, Hudson, Ind., 2 January, 1949. Rank: PFC Gunner on 27th Bombing Group, Serial #15059076 We salute his brave memory.

Chapter II
A-6/1

Eleanor Eloise Hovarter, eldest daughter of Otto and Carrie Wood Hovarter was born 18, September, 1924 at Ashley, DeKalb County, Indiana and was a sweet, mild little red-headed girl. She met and married Walter Bernad Sikes, born 1, April 1924 at Mims, Brevard County, Florida. He was the son of Walter H. and Kellie Harper Sikes. They wed on 8, February, 1947 at New Smyrna Beach, Florida.

Children:

Sikes:	David Lynn	4 August, 1948	New Smyrna Beach, Volusia Co. Florida
	Marilyn Louise	2 January, 1953	New Smyrna Beach, Florida
	Thomas Raymond	4 March, 1957	New Smyrna Beach, Florida
	Janice Eloise	10 August, 1961	New Smyrna Beach, Florida

Nancy Carol Hovarter, is an educator. She graduated from the DeKalb County Schools of Indiana. In her last letter to us her mother wrote, "Nancy is teaching at Barbourville, Kentucky, at a Methodist College this winter (1969/70) and has made four trips back to Evansville and Ball State, since she came down there. She plans on going to Ball State (Muncie) this Spring and work for her PH.D. as she passed the twelve hours written exams two years ago last August, but they put her off five times this past winter from the 1st of January until the first of July. She has found out that none of the ladies who started theirs when she did 8 years ago, had gotten theirs, but they have told her at Ball State that they will accept her credits from Stetson University, and from Indiana University. She taught at IU for two years. So I hope she can finish now as she is past 37 years." So--we know much more is untold, and that we are proud of Nancy.

Chapter VII
A/1

John W. Hagerty, seventh child of James and Elinor Crawford Hagerty, born 29, April 1829 was another of those trained to be a school teacher, as were four of the ten children. He was reared near New Hagerstown, is about all we know. His wife was Caroline Carter, of a Steuben County Pioneer family, and they wed in 1859.
John taught school in Missouri the first year of their marriage. Reasons which are not clear, called him back to the Old Homestead up in the hills above New Hagerstown, and they lived there some years. Finally, they moved to Indiana, again, and lived in Troy Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, until death. Her death was in 1876 and both are buried in the Carter cemetery, off the Bellefontaine Road, which runs from Pleasant Lake, Indiana, through to Bellefontaine, Ohio. This was an old famous trail with the pioneers.

Laura
1) Elinor, born 1861, died 1935, buried Hamilton, Indiana. Affectionately called Ellie and loved by all. She was a big, blond woman, as her father was a large man, she was large. She married Samuel Headley, 25, December 1907 at Alhambra, California. Ellie was a seamstress, too, and Samuel was custodian of the Methodist Church for long years.

2) Lewis Hagerty, born 13, June 1864 at Pleasant Lake, Indiana in April, 1907 he was married to Hattie Barr, of another pioneer family. He made his living at carpenter work for which the Hagerty men were duly acclaimed. There were no living children, but several still born.

Paul was born 13, February, 1915, adopted, Hudson, Indiana. Hattie passed away 22, January 1922. Lewis later married Metta Day Rayl, who was born 23, September 1874, in Blooming Grove, Ohio, and like him, a member of the Church of Christ. She went into the Emily Flynn Home at Marion, Indiana, when Lew became ill, and died there 11, May 1969. Is buried in Grant Cemetery, Emily Flynn Section. Lewis is at Hamilton in a family plot there. Lewis was such a large man, slow to speak, but so unfailing kind. To know him was a privilege.

Chapter VII

Chapter VIII
C. Mary Ada Sedella Hagerty, the youngest child of Edward Crawford and Mary Elizabeth Van Buskirk, was born on 1, November, 1866 at Albia, Iowa.

She was never married. She had been schooled well, and very highly for her day. She resided always with her parents, not only teaching, but later remained with them to care for them in their later years. Many years she taught in the Butte, Montana, Schools. Through all these years, she still maintained her residence in Deer Lodge, Montana. Here it was she boarded her sisters" children, when they were able to attend high school. She visited Hamilton, Indiana in 1893, and again in 1934. She was a large, intelligently attractive woman. Keenly interested in all things of good repute, and was a joy to know. The vital statistics somehow are missing, but they would be interesting. The family are justly proud to dedicate to her this page.

Chapter IX Margaret Hagerty, ninth child of James and Elinor Crawford Hagerty was born 23, March, 1833 near New Hagerstown, Ohio. Educated to be a teacher in the schools, she was the fourth of the ten children to be so trained. Twice wed, her first marriage was to William Noragon. Little of dates are known, but they were married in 1863. One child of theirs.
The second marriage was to a Michael Slentz, and they had the only son, and three daughters. Again, the dates and places are missing.

Children:

Belle Noragon
Burr Slentz
Cora Slentz
Ada Slentz
Maggie (Margaret)

1) Of Belle Noragon we have no listed particulars.
2) Burr Slentz was married to Maude Patterson. They lived near Howell, Michigan, and had six children we have known.
3) Cora Slentz was married to Stephen Roe. They had one child: "Clarence Roe" - and Cora died. Then her sister,
4) Ada Slentz married Stephen Roe and we know they lived at South Haven, Michigan, and attended Reunion some.

Children: 5:

Cora Roe
Carl Roe
Flossie Roe
Ernest Roe
and Bernice Roe.

5) Margaret (Maggie)Slentz married George Dalrymple. They lived at Lacota, Michigan and had no children. We have no facts of dates about them. But they too, used to come to the Hagerty Reunion. The War stopped the attendance and afterward, it seemed people were no longer drawn as a family.

Chapter X

Sarah Jane Hagerty, youngest child of James and Elinor Crawford Hagerty was born 27, March, 1835 near New Hagerstown, Ohio and is buried at Hamilton, Indiana. She was married to John Middleton, of whom we only know the name. A separation soon ensued, and she "worked out" until a second marriage.

Benjamin Brunner, of Ohio, a miller by trade was the second husband. Again, no children, and we only know that he was deceased in early middle years. When she moved to Indiana, we are not quite sure.

The third marriage was to Henry Keller of Butler. He was a Civil War Soldier. They lived in the country near Butler, Indiana, where they lived until after his death, when she moved into the town of Butler. An accident to her person made it necessary for other arrangements. She was admitted to the Tippecanoe Soldiers Home near West Lafayette, Indiana on the banks of the Wabash River. Here she lived until death. She is buried with others of the family in the cemetery at Hamilton, Indiana, Steuben County.

Tradition says she was a happy-go-lucky little lady and it was reported she smoked a corn-cob pipe. This is rumor-----

So, ends the story of the James Hagerty families and their first generations.
